PROJECT SCOPE

This is a Hospital management website where patients can add their information which saves to the database. They can login to their account to see information on different departments and their doctors . This also helps to schedule their appointments to see a specific doctor on your available date.